

I EXPECT ONLY THE BEST FROM EVERY STUDENT.

You might not be the "best", but you can always try to do your best.

Everyone is unique and different. God gave each person a special gift!

As the teacher, I am responsible for the management of student behavior in the class.

I believe every student has a right to learn.

I believe each student is personally accountable for their own actions.

No student has the right to distract others from learning or the teacher from teaching.

Mistakes Are Expected

If you knew how to do everything, there would be no need to have school.

The only failure from making a mistake is not learning from it!
